COMPREHENSION

19. The dog destroyed Mrs. Dowling's flower bed, chewed up Andy Martin's cat's toys, and the supplies in Mr. Bailey's shed.

20. "I have done everything to try to help you keep him, but he's just impossible."

21. "My dad says you shouldn't convict without hard evidence." The line means that you shouldn't accuse someone of being guilty without proof to show that he is guilty.

22.Kyle is helpful, considerate and kind. He assisted his friend in finding out that the raccoon was digging up the garden and not Charlie.

23. Happy/Relief because it was not Charlie that was digging up the garden.

Proud because the boys were successful in clearing an innocent client, Charlie.

24.Don't accuse anyone without hard evidence. (Any other similar answer).

25.I think that the boys would take the pictures taken that night of the raccoon and show it to Tommy' mother and the neighbours and prove that the raccoon was the culprit not Charlie.

POEM

26. The poet scraped a leg/skinned a knee/get ants all over him/soiled his pants.

27. "Dodge" means to escape or move away from.

28. He enjoys being free/He enjoys spotting birds' nests with eggs/He sees swallows, rooftops, TV, fields and farms.

29. The mood is happiness. The poet enjoys the freedom he has climbing the trees and looking out at birds, nests, the swallows, rooftops, TV, fields and farms.

30. The line is repeated to emphasize how frequent/regularly the poet climbs the trees and what always happens to him, the challenges and the things he enjoys in the poem.

31. This suggests that the poet was climbing trees for a long period of time and was missed by his parents.

32. Yes, because the poem emphasizes the challenges and joy the poet experiences while climbing the tree.

(No-- with a suitable response)

GRAPHIC

33. Friday and Saturday 22nd and 23rd March from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m.

34. 'Anniversary Sale' means that the sale is held to commemorate/celebrate/recognize the date the store was first opened/in operation. A date to remember every year.

35. To attract the readers' attention so they will read the advertisement and be persuaded to enter and buy.

To highlight the important information that there is a sale.

36. No because the store sells shirts, shorts, bathing suits, golf items etc. and she will be interested in wedding clothes.

Yes because she may need shirts, shorts and bathing suits if she plans to go on a vacation/honeymoon after the wedding,
